DATE:/...../.....

On 1 July 2016 the Associations Incorporation Act 2015 (the new law) commenced replacing the previous Associations Incorporation Act 1987. The new law provides for the regulation of incorporated not-for-profit organisations in Western Australia and includes requirements to ensure only suitable persons are responsible for running an incorporated association.

Under the new law a person will be prohibited from sitting on the management committee of an incorporated association (without prior approval from the Commissioner for Consumer Protection) where they:

- are an undischarged bankrupt or their affairs are being managed under insolvency laws;
- have been convicted of an offence in connection with the promotion, formation or management of a body corporate;
- have been convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty punishable on conviction by three months or more imprisonment; and/or
- have been convicted of an offence under Division 3 (the duties of officers provisions) or section 127 (the duty with respect to incurring of debt) of the Act.

Further obligations on the exercise of powers and discharge of duties are contained in the Act and particularly at Sections 44-47.

Declaration to Accompany Nomination Form

I, the undersigned nominee to the West Australian Guild of China Painters (Inc) hereby declare:

- (1) That I am eligible to act as a member of the Committee of Management;
- (2) That I will exercise my powers and discharge my duties in good faith in the best interests of the Association and for a proper purpose; and
- (3) That I will not improperly use my position or information I have obtained as an officer of the Association to gain an advantage for myself or cause detriment to the Association.
